Critoline Tolled.—At the tollgate between St. And thony's and Priveme, near Nescastle, England, the other day, a fair bardlady, extensively hoped, was brought to a stand, toning unable to force bry way through the turnstide. Though need to stand at the lart, she was not disposed to be detained on this consion, and diminded to have the gate opened, upon which the telliseper told her that if she had the gate opened, upon which the telliseper told her that if she had the gate opened she must pay 21, the same as horses, we believe, however, his gallantry eventually prevailed, and the fair cavalcade moved on.

There is hardly, in the whole range of the poet's writings, a work whose graceful and rapid movements, varied effects and characters, bell'stant wit and singulative poetry, make us no easily forget the want of unity in the plot. Shakapears takes an almost absord fable and invests it with heavity by deliceating the feelous farry of L-tones, the patience, resignation, and virtue of Hermitian, and the full-xitle friendship of Paulian, while the rural sketch of Perdits and her shepherd home presents the most graceful pic ure of pastorni life that was ever written. The characters of Leon the and Hermitian have fine representatives in Mr. and Mrs. Wallach, and those who as w the lady last season is the statue eccee, and admired the classic elagence of har position and characters.

tee and Hermione have since representatives in Mr. and Mrs. Wallock, and those who saw the lady last season in the statue econe, and admired the classic elegence of her position and drapert, will not forego the pleasors of witnessing it again. We hope to see a brilliant audience this evening:

THE KING OF SARBINIA'S SPEECH.—The portion of the speech of the King of Sardinie in the Legislative Chambers, relating to foreign affairs, was enfollows: "bigneri Senetori, Signeri Deputeti: rollows:

"bignori Sonslori, Signorl Deputeti:

"the horizon in whose midst the new year rise is not entirely serent; cot with starding this you will apply yourselves with your usual alectity to your Perliamentary labors. Excouraged by the experience of the past, we are prepared resolutely to encounter the eventualities of the future. Their future will be a happy one, our policy reposing on instruce, on love of liberty and of our country.

"Our country, small in territory, hes acquired credit in the councils of Europe, because it is greatly the idea it represents and by the sympathies it impires. This position is not exempt from periliphiaca, while we respect treatles, we are not lusensible to the ency of suffering which eaches as from so many parts of Italy.

"Strong by our concord, confiling in our gn dright, we await, prefant and decided, the decrees of Divine Frovidencs."

The King read his speech in a very firm, clear voice. Is latter portion—in which he referred, however, generally to the state of Italy and to the passibilities of the future—was repeatedly interrupted by vehement acclemations, clapping of bends, and shouts of "Viva il R: I" from the Senstors, Deputies, and from the closely packed endience that filled the galleries of the S-nate Hnuse.

Seported for the Louis Fille Journal XXXVTII CONGRESS - SECOND SESSION.

XXXVIII CONGRESS — SECOND SESSION. Thursday's Proceedings Concluded.

**Senate.**—Mr. Mousion, of Texas, introduced a bill to unite the two Judicial Districts of Texas, the object of the bill being to remove Judge Wetrous. In presenting the bill, Mr. Houston took occusion to reply to those members of the Hone of Representatives who had accused the people of Texas of an unusual clamor against Judge Wattour. He proceeded to reveal an elleged compliancy, or which Watrous was an actual member. The object of said conspiracy, in which Natvo Yorkers were chiefly implicated, was to obtain large postions of the public domain of the republic of Texas. The speech was an eleborate one and occupied the attention of the Senate for an hour and a bilf.

Mr. Collamor of Vt. presented a minority report from the Judiciery Committee in reference to the contested seats of the Indiana Senators.

Mr. Wilson of Mass. introduced a bill to authorise the Attorney Feneral to represent the linited S ates

Mr. Lacher of V.a. offerd an amendment, which was agreed to, that further impuiry be made as to whether the pay fir double type setting may not be avoided where the work is executed by the same person for both Houses of Congress.

Mr. Houston of Ala, ramarked that the President's message and the accompanying documents will make four volumes, when these fourths of the whole matter is worth ess to the l'nited States.

The resolution was then adopted.

The House then went into Committee of the Whole on the State of the Union of the Executive, Legislative, and Judicial spropriation bil.

An exence debate custed on the reduction of the item of apprepriation for toxes supplied to members of Congress—the question of conomy being lavoured.

John Cochrene of N. Y. said the lime thus consumed was worth very much nr a than these lowes. Gentlemen ought to contine themselves to weighter natters for refreaching themselves to weighter natters for refreaching the subscience, some of the continent of the resonance of the tarrifagives and being appeared in the case with Find States and being 200,00,000 his to permanent dott, the report of the same person for the transury not act for or or two years more.

The resolution was then alopted.

The ilouse then went into Committee of the Whole on the State of the University of the measure in the House, if it is similar in its details to the case until the Augustian at her appeared in the Committee on the Judicial of the measure in the House, if it is similar in its details to the suitees, some prominent of the continent of the continent of the measure of the tarrifagives and the accommittee on the Judicial of the measure of the tarrifagives and the accommittee of the continent of the postorite and the postori

Tripps of the remarked that he had received on y two locks when he was entitled to eight. He would make a present of the other six to the government.
[Laughter]
Five thousand dollars for the baxes was then voted to be stricken out. Tither small items of the contrigent expenses of the Huns, viz: saddle horses, wagens, &c., ware discussed.

Mr Millson of Va reminded gentlemen that, at the rate at which the House had been proceeding,
it would require fortiered days to dispose of this bill
